Career Achievement Award Program – Youth

The Learning for Life Career Achievement Award program allows young people to be recognized for community service and to acquire and be recognized for career proficiency achievement in either arts & humanities, aviation, business, communications, engineering, fire & emergency service, health, law & government, law enforcement, science, skilled trades, social services, or all 12 career clusters. It gives Explorers and student participants distinguished credentials for their resume.

Congressional Award – Advisor

An adult advisor, whom you choose, helps you set challenging but a achievable goals in the four program areas. Once you've achieved your goals, you summarize them on a Recommendation Form. You'll receive a letter, which will let you know when your Senator and /or member of Congress will present you with your medal and certificate.

Leadership Award

The learning for Life Leadership Award is a distinguished award for Explorers, high school Learning for Life program participants, and adult volunteer leaders who have given exceptional leadership in Exploring or Learning for Life programs. The Leadership Award is available annually to all Explorer posts and Learning for Life high school groups.

President's Volunteer Service Award – Advisors

Learning for Life has a proud history of service learning. Our volunteers continue to work to meet the needs of their neighborhoods and the community. Individuals who have completed 4,000 or more volunteer service hours over the course of their lifetime are eligible to receive the President's Call to Service Award.

Lifesaving or Meritorious Award – Youth or Leader

Recognition may be given to a youth member or adult leader of LFL where the evidence shows (in accordance with prescribed regulations) that he/she saved or attempted to save a life, or performed a significant act of service.

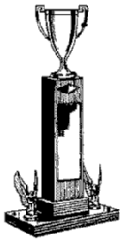

Law Enforcement Exploring Community Crime Prevention Award - Post

The International Society of Crime Prevention Practitioners provides an annual recognition of Explorer posts that exhibit outstanding support of their communities. Includes a plaque and pin.

William H. Spurgeon, III Award – Adults

The Spurgeon Award is presented annually to five individuals who are outstanding role models for youth, because they have made significant strides in their careers and have rendered exceptional community service, either personally or through their company/organization affiliations. The award is named after William Spurgeon, the founder of the contemporary, co-educational Exploring program.
