Required Training

- Safeguarding Youth training is required for all Scouting America registered volunteers and is a joining requirement.
- Safeguarding Youth training must be taken every year. If a volunteer's Safeguarding Youth training is not current at the time of annual registration renewal, the volunteer will not be re-registered.
- Click below to take the training in English or Spanish

English Language Version

Spanish Language Version

You do not have to be a registered member of Scouting America to take Youth Protection training.

1. To take the training, head over to My.Scouting.org and create an account.
2. You'll receive an email notification with your account information, including a member ID/reference number.
3. From the My.Scouting.org portal, you can launch the Safeguarding Training from the home page.
4. Upon completion, you may print a training certificate to submit with a volunteer application, or wait for an email with your certificate to be sent to your email address.
5. Your training will automatically be updated in our system and associated with the member ID/reference number issued when you created the account.